

ALL IN ONE CONSULTANTS

The LaGrange County Council on Aging is a nonprofit organization that was established in 1975 to provide services and be a resource for services that improve the quality of life for the senior citizens of LaGrange County. The organization is committed to assisting individuals to remain independent in the home of their choice with dignity and preventing premature institutionalization by developing and administering senior programs.

Colton Strawser Consulting was contracted to provide marketing support to the organization, including a monthly mailed newsletter, e-newsletter, social media management, and website management

"I like having Colton to email and have a response fast with help on my ideas
and his input."

CHERI PERKINS,
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

LaGrange County COUNCIL on AGING

In addition, our company has assisted with event coordination of an annual senior exposition, support for various fundraising events, and has provided expertise on various issues related to board engagement and program development.

Colton Strawser Consulting provides a variety of specialized nonprofit organizational development services to organizations both large and small in order to increase their community impact.
